

NINO Symposium,
Leiden, 11-12 December, 2009

Programme

Friday 11 December 2009, National Museum of Antiquities

- 10:00-10:45 registration and coffee
- 10:45-11:15 opening remarks
- 11:15-12:00 Introductory lecture by W.Y. Adams, “Qasr Ibrim: connecting the dots”
- 12:00-12:45 P.J. Rose, “Forty years of excavations at Qasr Ibrim: an overview”
- 12:45-14:15 lunch break (please make your own arrangements)
- 14:15-14:45 B.P. Muhs, “Demotic oracles and ostraca from Ptolemaic Qasr Ibrim”
- 14:45-15:15 J. Hallof, “Meroitic Ostraca from Qasr Ibrim”
- 15:15-15:45 tea break
- 15:45-16:15 T. Derda, “Roman occupation of Qasr Ibrim as reflected in Greek papyri from the site”
- 16:15-16:45 J.H.F. Dijkstra, “Qasr Ibrim and the religious transformation of Lower Nubia in Late Antiquity”
- 17:00-18:00 drinks at café Camino Real
- 18:00-20:00 speakers’ dinner (offered by the Netherlands Institute for the Near East)
- 19:30-20:00 museum doors open, coffee
- 20:00-20:15 introduction
- 20:15-21:15 public lecture by W.Y. Adams, “5000 years of cultural continuity and change in Nubia”

*Registration is on Friday 11 December from 10.00-10.45 hrs and during the breaks.
The registration desk will be in the vicinity of the Taffeh Temple in the museum.*

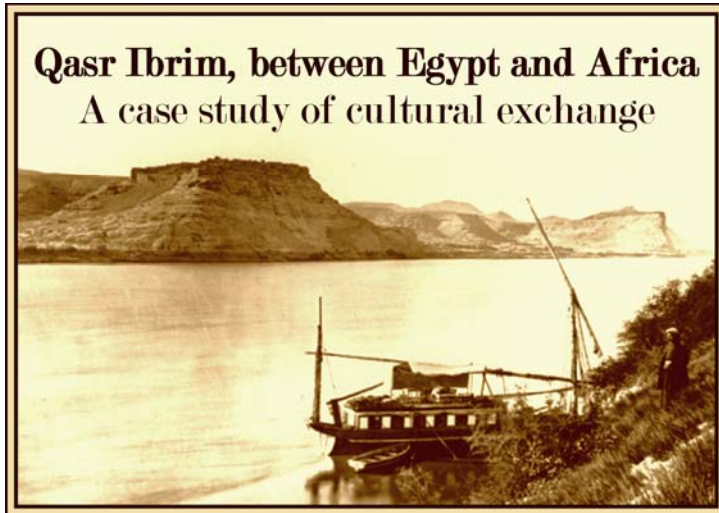

*Please note that our lecture room is in a part of the museum that is not publicly accessible.
Museum staff will be able to recognize you as a participant in the symposium by your badge, which you will receive at registration.*

Peeters Publishers (Leuven) will have a book table at the museum with relevant publications.

Stichting
oudchristelijke
Studiën

NINO Symposium,
 Leiden, 11-12 December, 2009

Programme

Saturday 12 December 2009, National Museum of Antiquities

- 10:00 museum opens
- 10:15-10:45 J.L. Hagen, "Small pieces of the puzzle: Coptic and Old Nubian MSS from Qasr Ibrim and the story of Christian Nubia"
- 10:45-11:15 G. Ruffini, "Revisiting the unpublished Old Nubian archives from Qasr Ibrim"
- 11:15-11:45 coffee break
- 11:45-12:15 A. Łajtar, "Graffiti on the rocks of Gebel Maktub: Preliminary presentation"
- 12:15-12:45 G. Khan, "Medieval Arabic documents from Qasr Ibrim"
- 12:45-14:15 lunch break (please make your own arrangements)
- 14:15-14:45 N.K. Adams, "Influences from abroad: The evidence of the textiles"
- 14:45-15:15 H. Barnard, "Contacts between Qasr Ibrim and the surrounding deserts"
- 15:15-15:30 tea break
- 15:30-16:00 W. Godlewski, "Nobadia's role in the internal and external politics of the Kingdom of Makuria"
- 16:00-16:15 J. van der Vliet and J.L. Hagen, final remarks
- 16:15-16:50 Visit to exhibition 'The Egypt of Gustave Flaubert'
- 17:00 museum closes