

Administrative tablet from Girsu (southern Iraq), concerning the receipt of a quantity of sesame delivered by Lu-Ningirsu and received by his brother Ur-Abba. The text is written in Sumerian with the cuneiform script.

Envelope

1	50.4.4.0 še-giš-i ₃ gur lugal ki lu ₂ - ^d nin-gir ₂ -su dumu ba-zi-ta	15280 liters of sesame in the “gur” measure of the king. From Lu-Ningirsu, son of Bazi.
R.5	kišib ur-ab-ba mu en-maḥ-gal-an-na en ^d nanna ba-ḥun	The seal of Ur-Abba (was impressed). The year: Enmaḥgalanna the En-priestess of Nanna was installed. (Year Amar-Suen 4, ca. 2041 BCE)

Inner tablet

1	36.4.1.0 še-giš- /i ₃ gur lugal a-ra ₂ 1-kam 14.0.3.0 gur a-ra ₂ 2-kam	11050 liters of sesame in the “gur” measure of the king, the first time. 4230 liters (GUR), the second time.
5	KI LU ₂ - ^d NIN.GIR ₂ .SU./TA	From Lu-Ningirsu,
R.	a ₂ -geme ₂ -še ₃ ur-ab-ba šu ba-ti (empty space) mu en-maḥ-gal-an-na	for the labor of the female workers, Ur-Abba has received. The year: Enmaḥgalanna
10	en ^d nanna ba-ḥun	the En-priestess of Nanna was installed. (Year Amar-Suen 4, ca. 2041 BCE)

Seal inscription on the envelope:

- 1) ur-ab-ba Ur-Abba
- 2) dub-sar Scribe
- 3) dumu ba-zi son of Bazi

The seal shows an introduction scene of a protective goddess and supplicant before a seated deity.