

Thursday 26 March 2026

Collections in the spotlight

NINO & Leiden Papyrological Institute

13:00-13:15 | Introduction – Miriam Müller (NINO) & Joanne Stolk (LPI)

13:15-13:45 | The Böhl collection & archives in connection – Sebastiaan Berntsen & Carolien van Zoest (NINO)

13:45-14:15 | The NINO glass slide collection: past, present, and future – Luna Beerden (Leiden University)

14:15-14:45 | Professor Machteld J. Mellink and her NINO and Kampman connections: from beginning archaeologist to honoured publicist for BiOr – Machteld Pel (niece & biographer of Machteld J. Mellink)

14:45-15:00 | Break

15:00-15:30 | Developments in Graeco-Roman amulet use with the arrival of Christianity (P.Leiden Pap. Inst. inv. 81 and 514) – Patricia Kret (Leiden University)

15:30-16:00 | Registering people in ancient Oxyrhynchus: new evidence for the last census in 257 CE (P.Leiden Pap. Inst. inv. 182) – Elise Hoekstra (Leiden University)

16:00-16:30 | The grain account of Tatriphis in Tholtis (P.Leiden Pap. Inst. inv. 153) – Walt Kraeger (Leiden University)

16:30-16:45 | Closing

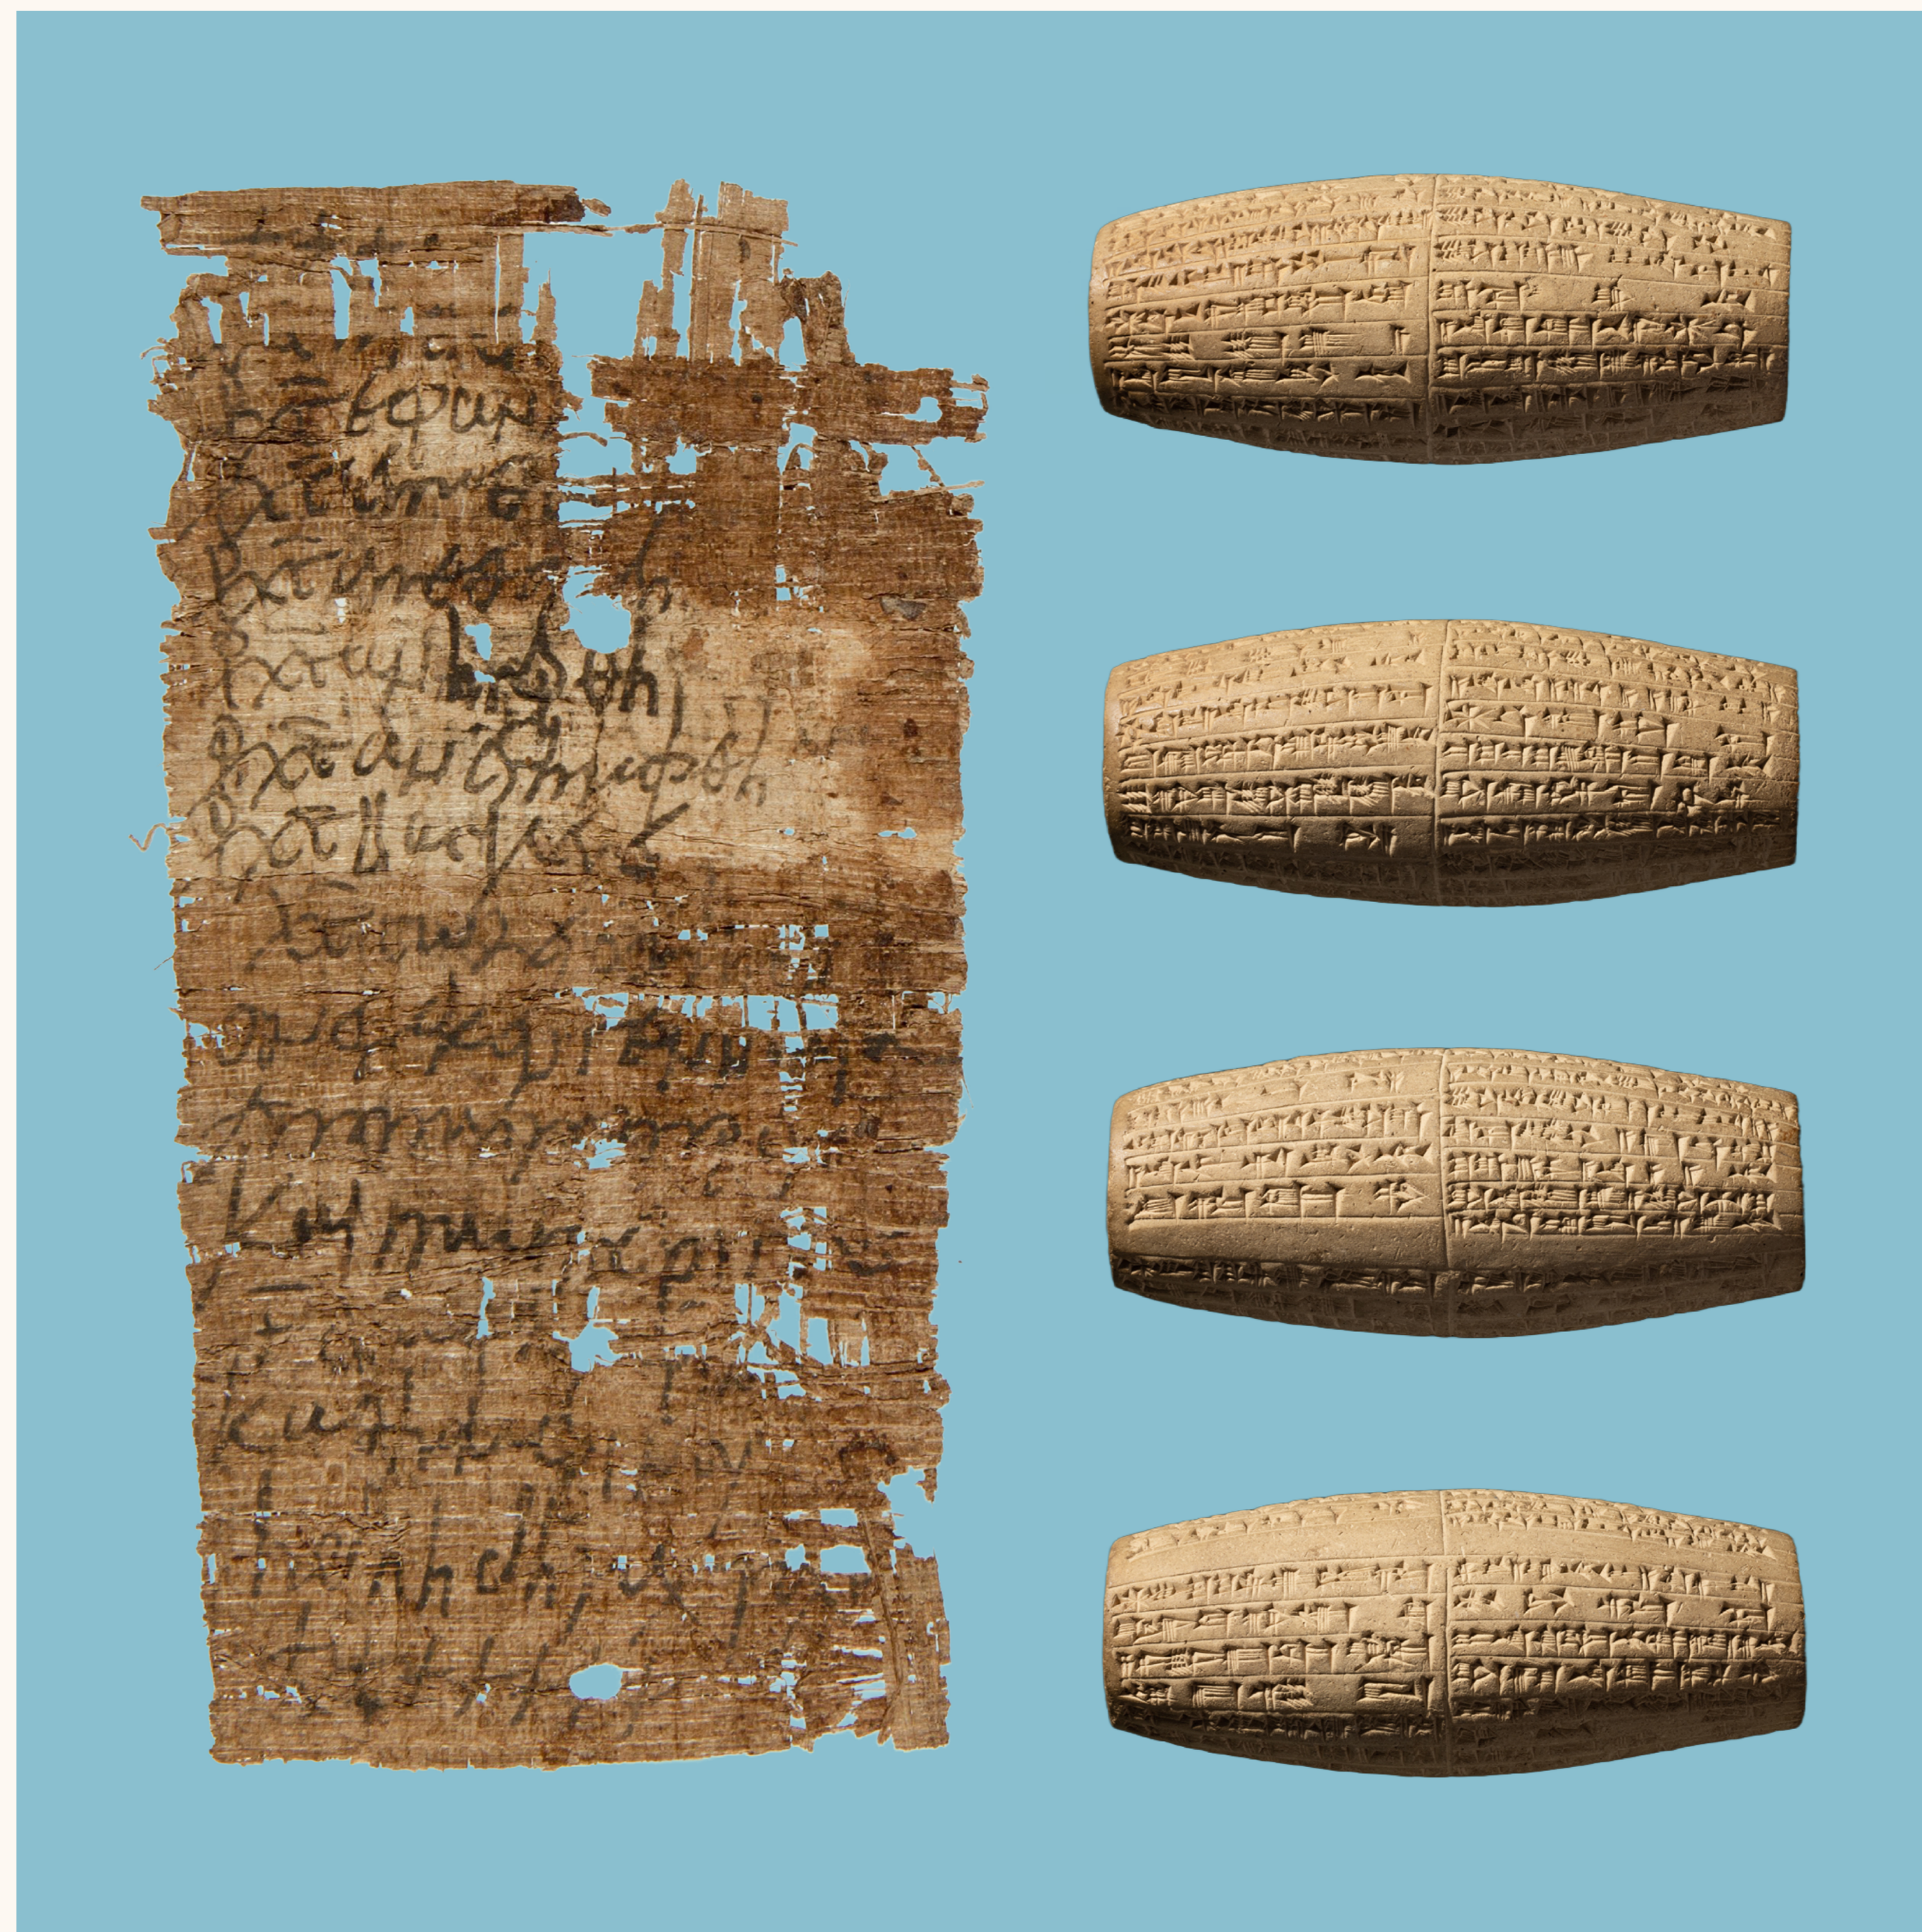

17:00-18:00 | Reception (Herta Mohr Building, Common Room LIAS/NINO)

Date: Thursday, 26 March 2026

Venue: Leiden University Library (Witte Singel 27),
Vossius room

Time: 13.00–16.45 hrs, drinks afterwards

Admission: free

edu.nl/j7m97

